CALL FOR PAPERS

(1237) MONTEREY INSTITUTE SYMPOSIUM ON COMPARATIVE LIT. The Monterey Institute of International Studies announces its 3rd Symposium on Comparative Literature and International Studies, March 26-27, 1983. Focus: Literature as an indicator of change. Papers are invited on: 1) theoretical considerations about the role literature can and should play in international studies; 2) ways in which literature has shaped, challenged, or implemented public policy; 3) individual literary works that have either reflected or resulted in political or social change or a change in consciousness. Submit 5-7 double-spaced pages by June 30, 1982, to Elizabeth W. Trahan, Monterey Institute of International Studies, 425 Van Buren St., Monterey, CA 93940. (Source: AATSEEL Newsletter, Apr. 1982)

FULBRIGHT AWARDEES

(1238) FULBRIGHTS AWARDED. Four Ohio State faculty members and a graduating senior have been awarded Fulbright grants for study in foreign countries in 1982-83, the Ohio State University Center for International Studies announced. Ivan Boh, professor of philosophy, will study late medieval and early modern logic in Yugoslavia from November 1982 to April 1983. David Robinson, associate professor of Slavic languages, will research Slavic liturgical texts, also in Yugoslavia, from March to June 1983.

James P. Scanlan, professor of philosophy, will travel to the Soviet Union to study Soviet government philosophy for five months beginning November 1982. In addition, Michael Szporer, assistant professor of English, will spend the 1982-83 school year in Poland researching structural poetics in Eastern Europe. (Source: OSU's "On Campus")

LIBRARY CATALOGING GRANT

(1246) BALCH LIBRARY RECIEVES LARGE CATALOGING GRANT: Thanks to a $240,000 grant from the Pew Memorial Turst, The Balch Institute for Ethnic Studies Library will embark on a three-year project to catalog, with the use of the OCLC system, two-thirds of its printed holdings. These consist primarily of unique books, pamphlets, and periodicals which emanate from, or describe, America's many ethnic groups. This project will help the library to better serve scholars, students, and the general public by providing researchers with a public card catalog which will allow easy access to items of interest by reference to subject and other entries, as well as by author and title.

NEW PUBLICATIONS

(1247) SOVIET SPECIALTY GROUP GEOGRAPHY NEWSLETTER. Readers of OSEEN may be interested in a "newcomer", a newsletter for the Association of American Geographers Soviet Specialists Group. Its first issue appeared in March 1982. Further information is available from the editor, Robert Gohstand, Cal. State Univ., Northridge, CA 91330 (213-855-3532). This newsletter promises to be a good source of information on Soviet agriculture, resource economics, and rural development. (Source: RSEEA Newsletter)
